Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription,

Is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse because of the uncertainty as to their harmless character, but is a medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol, in its make-up. The "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is in fact the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, sold through druggists, that does not contain alcohol and that too in large quantities. Furthermore, it is the only medicine for woman's special diseases, the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended.

A little book of some of these endorsements will be sent to any address, postpaid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Don't forget that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for woman's weaknesses and delicate ailments, is not a patent or secret medicine, being the "Favorite Prescription" of a regularly educated and graduated physician, engaged in the practice of his chosen specialty—that of diseases of women—that its ingredients are printed in plain English on every bottle-wrapper; that it is the only medicine especially designed for the cure of woman's diseases that contains no alcohol, and the only one that has a professional endorsement worth more than all the so-called "testimonials" ever published for other medicines. Send for these endorsements as above. They are free for the asking.

If you suffer from periodical, headache, backache, dizziness, pain or dragging down sensation low down in the abdomen, weak back, have disagreeable and weakening, catarrhal, pelvic drain, or are in distress from being long on your feet, then you may be sure of benefit from taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic.

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average baldheaded man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, inoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

"Destroy the cause—you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Wants to be Guillotined.

"I want to be guillotined. They condemned me to death and they shall execute me. I'll have none of their pardons! There is no reason for a revision of my sentence. Paris has not seen an excution in ten years and I'm going to give them the sight free."

This declaration was made by a tough, Pierre Adam, to the Paris prison authorities and lawyers, who were trying to persuade him to appeal for a commutation of his death sentence for murder. He has resisted the persuasions persistently for three weeks and clamors to have his head chopped off, yet the authorities do not comply with his request.

The position is a curious one. As the law stands, it prescribes that executions shall be public, but since the guillotine was removed some years ago from the notorious Place de la Roquette the local officials everywhere have successfully resisted the attempts to secure a new site and the guillotine has laid idle in a shed, the officers of justice not venturing to offend any part of the city by insisting upon its erection. They have consequently persuaded every person condemned to death to appeal for a communication, which has been forthwith granted.

Adam's unprecedented refusal creates a difficulty. A public excution invariably leads to a disgusting carouse and misbehavior by the scum of the city, and the establishment of the guillotine anywhere without the issent of the respectable citizens would inevitably arouse anger. Hence the reluctance to carry out death sentences.

Bills are under discussion alternatively legalizing private executions and abolishing capital punishment, and Adam's noval attitude may lead to the passing of one or the other.

Meat-packing in England.

The Britishers who have been so virtuous recently over the Chicago meat-packing revelations were yesterday confronted with the annual report of the inspector of factories and workshops, which shows that the conditions in England are quite as revolting as anything alleged of the western packing center. Dirty factories and disgusting methods seems to be the rule, instead of the exception. Jam factories, bakeries and sausage makers are all censured as being equally filthy and the description of one fits most of the others. Here is the report on the typical jam factory:

"The boiling room lay between the yard and the stable and the horses reached the latter through the boiling room. The sanitary accomodation was hardly separated from the rooms where the fresh fruit and uncovered jam were kept and the floors were dirty and undrained."

Another factory inspector found jam pots being washed in "liquid like dark soup, which smelled abominably." The manager informed the inspector that the water was changed "about once a week." When fished out of these evil-smelling tanks the pots were allowed to stand until dry, when they were considered to be ready to receive fresh instalments of preserves.

Inspectors of bakeries found that it was a frequent custom to bathe the children in them after the close of work on Saturdays, and the families' weekly collection of dirty clothes was sorted in the bakeries for dispatch to the laundry.

The sausage factories, says the report, are mostly owned by Germans and are "small, dilapidated, badly lighted and are often infested by rats."

Frugal Evangelist.

Rev. Jacob Kurtz, the "housetop" evangelist, of York, Pa., is following his annual custom of laboring in the harvest fields near Waynesboro. In the daytime he works in the fields and at night he goes into Waynesboro, where he preaches from the house tops.

The evangelist is living on 6½ cents a day. His bill of fare for each of three daily meals is three slices of stale bread, each half an inch thick, which costs 2 cents a day; skimmed milk, 2 cents a day; half cup of coffee, 1½ cents a day; two tablespoonsful of jelly, 1 cent a day. The farmers for whom he is working recently required him to increase his cost of living to 13 cents a day by adding two eggs at each meal, costing 6 cents, and one piece of pie, costing 1 cent.

The evangelist classed these additional articles of diet as unnecessary luxuries, and after a few days returned to his limit, 6½ cents a day.

Reverend Kurtz claims that on his slim diet he is able to stand the hard work in the field better than the younger men, who gorge themselves with rich food.

Fixed the Price of Ice.

In the investigation of the ice manufacturing concerns of Kansas City, which County Prosecutor Kimball is trying to show is a trust in restraint of trade, Harry L. Burke, secretary of the People's Ice, Storage and Fuel Company, testifying yesterday, practically admitted that his company dictates the price of ice in Kansas City. He told how his company sometimes bought ice for $2 a ton and sold it for $5 without ever seeing the product. Witness said he was unable to tell the cost of production and declared that the supply and demand fixed the price of ice. The investigation resulted from a movement to oust from business the concerns belonging to the supposed combine which, it is charged, demands $10 a ton of the smaller consumer for ice that costs it $1.50. Mr. Burke testified that his company had contracted for the output of other ice companies and that it would be a difficult matter for these companies to furnish a supply for competition without violating their contracts with his company. In fact, he said "that they would not dare to do it."

OPERATION AVOIDED

EXPERIENCE OF MISS MERKLEY

She Was Told That an Operation Was Inevitable. How She Escaped It.

When a physician tells a woman suffering with serious feminine trouble that an operation is necessary, the very thought of the knife and the operating table strikes terror to her heart, and our hospitals are full of women coming for just such operations.

There are cases where an operation is the only resource, but when one considers the great number of cases of menacing female troubles cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after physicians have advised operations, no woman should submit to one without first trying the Vegetable Compound and writing Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice, which is free.

Miss Margret Merkley, of 275 Third Street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"Loss of strength, extreme nervousness, shooting pains through the pelvic organs, bearing down pains and cramps compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor, after making an examination, said I had a female trouble and ulceration and advised an operation. To this I strongly objected and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The ulceration quickly healed, all the bad symptoms disappeared and I am once more strong, vigorous and well."

Female troubles are steadily on the increase among women. If the monthly periods are very painful, or too frequent and excessive—if you have pain or swelling low down in the left side, bearing-down pains, don't neglect yourself: try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Killed Boy For an Insult.

Frank Spence, a boy 17 years old, was shot and instantly killed yesterday evening by Charles O'Connor, a bartender at Pine Beach, a resort near Norfolk.

Spence had circulated a report reflecting severely upon O'Connor. O Connor brooded over it for several days, saying that he would kill the boy. Yesterday afternoon he got a pistol and walked up to Spence, who was employed by the Amusement Concessionaries at the resort and made good his threat. He shot the boy through the neck, severing his jugular vein.

Spence's home was in South Mills, N. C. O'Connor was formerly an enlisted man in the United States navy and returned to Norfolk 18 months ago after a term of service in the Philippines. After the shooting he was arrested and lodged in the Norfolk county jail. There were many excursionists at Pine Beach when the shooting occurred and it occasioned something of a panic.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 11, 1906.

A STRONG nationalistic movement in the Philippines is now directing its forces in a campaign against the teaching of the English language in the primary Filipino schools. It is fostered by the native Manila press, which appeals to Tagalog parents not to permit their children to become estranged from them by adopting a foreign language and foreign customs. Filipino girls are seriously admonished not to receive the attentions of those young men who ape the manners and affect the language of the Americans. "If we now study the American tongue," one of the articles says, "it is because we are subject to the American people, just as in the past we studied Spanish because we were under Spanish domination. Who of us can tell what may happen in the future, after we have been sold to Japan or when China wakes up?" There is method in the administration's declarations that the Filipinos are not yet ready for self government!

REV. W. A. BROWN, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church at Portsmouth, says that during the summer his pulpit discourses will be limited to ten minutes. The attendance at Mr. Brown's church has recently fallen off to an alarming extent on account of the heat. The idea struck the rector that possibly short sermons would prove the solution of the difficulty in which he found himself. Since he pledged himself to ten-minute discourses the rector's dream has been more than realized, and last Sunday night his congregation was by far the largest in Portsmouth. Other ministers, even the most garrulous, are falling in line with Rev. Mr. Brown and becoming short sermon apostles. Visiting ministers recently occupied Alexandria pulpits. Their disclosures which lasted less than twenty minutes abounded in originality and they were listened to with close attention. Short and pointed sermons are always more effectual than long and labored efforts whether the temperature be high or low.

THE government public printer in a statement made yesterday declared that the printing office had never been capable of better work and had never done its work more expeditiously than during the past session, contending that with a force of 400 fewer employes than when he entered more congressional printing had been done during last session than in all three of the sessions of the last Congress. He stated that the error by which the $3,000,000 appropriation for public buildings in Washington had been retained in the sundry civil appropriation bill was due to an order from the capitol. This was suspected from the beginning. The bill was evidently tampered with at the capitol by some one interested in selling property to the government and the matter should be thoroughly investigated.

AFTER MANY discouragements and failures, the Midvale Steel Company, of Philadelphia, has broken up the Armor Plate Trust. In the bids opened at the Navy Department yesterday for 7328 tons of armor for use in the construction of the battleships South Carolina and Michigan, the Midvale company, as stated in the Gazette of that day, was not only the lowest bidder, but the Carnegie and Bethlehem companies, which have heretofore had a monopoly of government armor plate work, reduced their bids, the former $50 a ton, and the latter $39 a ton. The contracts have not been awarded, but it is presumed, naturally, that the Midvale company will get them.

THE Lynchburg board of aldermen yesterday unanimously killed the ordinance which provided for the annexation of a large portion of the suburbs in Campbell county, thus putting an end to the proposition for the present. The annexation movement is not so strong in this State as it was a year or two ago. It has been ascertained that annexation in many instances would cost cities more than it would come to. Territory annexed must be improved, policed, &c., and the children must be educated—all of which costs money, while the returns are in the dim distance.

MONTALON, a leader of the Ladrones, has surrendered to the Philippine authorities, and now it is said there is but one more of the "outlaw" chiefs at large in Luzon. When he is killed or captured another will take his place and so on ad infinitum.

From Washington.

Washington, July 11.

Public Printer Stillings has raised an issue in the present sharp controversy between the government printing office and Congress that gives promise of serious if not startling results. He charges that the three million dollar item in the sundry civil appropriation bill, providing for the purchase of a site for the department of State, Justice and Commerce and Labor, and which was finally ordered expunged from the bill by both branches of Congress, had been retained in the act upon the orders of some official at the Capitol This was a subject which the Congressional investigating committee did not care to enter into but the public printer, smarting under what he declares has been unjust criticism of his establishment, has insisted upon replacing in the record of the committee the charge that his force, now under a severe fire, discovered a provision in the bill that should not have been there; that the proper officials at the Capitol were informed of the fact and that only after the printing force was notified specifically to "follow copy" was the bill engrossed and sent back to the House for proper signature. "Our office obeyed orders absolutely in the engrossing of the sundry civil bill," he exclaimed with emphasis. Lying in his bed, where he has been confined for some days, he answered all interrogatories of the committee without much indication of emotion until this point was reached. Then he lifted himself upon his elbow, glancing as he spoke at Captain Brian and the half dozen other heads of the printing house who were present. They nodded assent. Secretary Root discovered the item in the bill the closing day of Congress. The bill had just been signed and had virtually become a law. The correction of it required the passage of a joint resolution. Senator Hale, who forced the present invertigation of the big printing house, cited the incident as an additional proof of his declaration that there was incompetency in the printing house management. Mr. Stillings' declaration that the retention of the provision was intentional, and not an error as has been generally supposed, will lead to a rigid investigation of the methods of the enrolling system of the Senate and House.

It is said at the State Department that positive assusances have been given the administration that the Senate will ratify the Santo Domingo treaty next session.

The new Panama canal bonds will be among the most ornate ever issued by the United States government. The designs have been made and the finishing touches are now being put upon the plates at the bureau of engraving and printing. The bonds will be issued on the first of next month. There are three denominations of the coupon bonds, $20, $100 and $1,000.

Secretary Mecalf, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, today decided against the deportation of the three machinists brought to Hoopston, Illinois, from St. Johns, N. B., and whose presence in this country has been responsible for two hearings on the subject in Chicago, able counsel appearing on both sides. The secretary held that the machinists had become skilled in adjusting the delicate machines by which a patented horse shoe nail is manufactured and that therefore they come under the section of the law which provides for the importation of skilled labor under contract if labor of like kind, unemployed, cannot be found in the United States. As further proof that they were specially fitted for their work, it was shown that the aliens were paid more than mechanics of similar grade in the United States.

By presidential proclamation an addition of 370,000 acres has been made to the Black Mesh Forest Reserve in Arizona, directly north of the mining town of Clifton. It is hoped to raise a cover of vegetation in the addition by which floods, which have recently so badly damaged the valuable copper mines to the south, will be largely eliminated. To do this the grazing of goats and the cutting of fuel supply will be prohibited.

Because there is a dearth of civil engineers in the Philippines, the Philippine commissioners have passed an act which will educate Filipino students at the expense of the government and open to them an alluring and lucrative field of professional employment. The plan outlined is to give students of the normal college employment as apprentices in the bureau of lands. They will attend college in the morning and work in the bureau in the afternoon, where Chief Surveyor S. O. Scuddy will have charge of their training. This will give poor boys an opportunity to receive a bonus in the form of a substantial salary while perfecting themselves in an important position.

The cases against the officials of the so called fertilizer trust are to be speedily taken to the Supreme Court of the United States. An agreement to that effect has been reached between the attorneys for the government and those representing the trust. Acting Attorney General McReynolds today received a telegram from E. T. Sandford, district attorney at Knoxville, who has been engaged in the prosecution of the fertilizer trust cases at Richmond. He informed him of the victory won before Judge Waddill, who decided that he has jurisdiction to admit to bail or cause removal to the federal court in Tennessee of the officials indicted for alleged violation of the anti-trust law. It is the opinion of the officials of the Department of Justice that the officials will now resort to habeas corpus proceedings from which, no matter which side may be victorious, there will be an immediate appeal to the United States Supreme Court. This will bring the important question involved directly before the highest tribunal in the country, to wit, whether an official can be tried on a charge involving a conspiracy in a district in which he did not live and in which he has not sojourned. The government takes the affirmative of this proposition. When presented to the Supreme Court, a motion will promptly be made to advance the case for speedy hearing.

A delegation representing the armor plate trust was at the Navy Department today to protest against the awarding of the contract for plates for the new battleships Michigan and South Carolina to the Midvale Steet Company. The case of the commonwealth against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company for failure to sell two-cent mileage books, under the Churchman law, came up in the Corporation Court in Staunton yesterday and was hotly contested by Col. Rudolph Bumgardner, representing the company, and Capt. Carter Braxton, commonwealth's attorney, representing the commonwealth.

He compromised by accepting the loan of one from a deck hand.

City Council.

The City Council was in session two hours and a half last night, during which time considerable business was transacted, the most important of which was the opening of bids for the electric light franchsie. A joint session was held when this was done.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

No new business was presented in the the board.

When the petitions of the Reliance and Columbia Fire Companies and the Relief Hook and Ladder Company for an appropriation of $100 each to defray their expenses in visiting Richmond in August was received from the lower board,

Mr. Simpson asked if the appropriations were not in excess of those of previous years.

Mr. W. H. Sweeney said he was unable to answer the question

Mr. Ballenger said the companies had received $300 on other occasions.

Mr. Hill said $150 had been appropriated for each of the two of the steam companies heretofore.

Mr. Simpson replied that, according to his recollection, the companies had received $50 each when they attended the State Firemen's Association in Harrisonburg.

Mr. Ballenger said that $250 had been appropriated in 1904 when the association met in Alexandria.

Mr. Simpson replied that was another thing. The appropriation referred to was for the purpose of aiding in entertaining the visitors.

The action of the Common Council in granting the petitions were finally concurred in.

When the report of the committee on general laws and streets requesting the Corporation Attorney to defend the city in the injunction proceedings instituted by the Washington-Southern Railway Company in reference to the railway track on Henry street was read,

Mr. W. H. Sweeney expressed apprehension that the city was about to enter into expensive litigation.

Mr. Simpson said that self-respect should animate the city to such an extent as to cause it to follow up the case. The Mayor had stopped the company from placing the "frog" at Cameron and Henry streets, after the latter street had been abandoned, and the City Council had affirmed his action. It was now right and proper to direct the Corporation Attorney to move a dissolution of the injunction obtained by the company. Council could not afford to let the matter go by default; it would be against its dignity. Besides the action taken had been under the advice of the Corporation Attorney.

Mr. W. H. Sweeney had voted for the ordinance ordering the company to remove its rails from Henry street because it had been the wish of the property-owners on that street. He wanted to know how much they were willing to pay toward opposing the railroad company.

Mr. Ballenger said the property-owners at a meeting of the committees had expressed a determination to fight the company, even as far as the Supreme Court of the United States. He had, however, recently heard that they had cooled down somewhat and now regarded it as the city's fight solely.

Mr. Simpson replied that it was the city's fight, and that it was the duty of the city to defend citizens against corporations or individuals in such cases. The Mayor had acted in the matter in accordance with the opinion of the Corporation Attorney and had been sustained by the City Council. Must the latter now back down?

Mr. Ballenger recapitulated the case. The Mayor, he said, had acted at the instance of citizens, and now that the city had prepared grounds for a legal battle the people on Henry street were about to stand aside and as spectators look upon the contest.

Mr. Simpson said it was now up to Council to act.

Mr. Burke thought the city was about to be plunged into expensive litigation in the matter. He moved to lay the report over.

Mr. Marbury said he was the only member of the five committeemen present at the meeting who voted against the report, and he would vote against its adoption now.

Mr. Curtin announced that he was one of the four members of the committee who voted for it. In speaking of the question before the board he announced himself heartily in accord with the views expressed by Mr. Simpson.

Mr. Hill said he voted for the ordinance providing for the removal of the track, but he realized that the litigation would be a losing game for the city. The latter would spend between $2,000 and $5,000 and then lose.

Mr. Simpson said Mr. Hill and the Corporation Attorney were not of the same opinion, although the former was generally correct in his deductions. The speaker did not see how the injunction proceedings could cost over $75 or $100. He did not regard it as a losing game, nor did the Corporation Attorney.

After some further interchange of opinion the report was laid over.

An ordinance providing for advertising for bids for the franchise for the use of Cameron street west of Payne street for electric railway purposes was received from the Common Council.

Mr. Burke said that it should be stipulated in the franchise that the company run a car at regular hours from the foot of King to the new union depot.

Mr. Simpson agreed with Mr. Burke and said the company should also be made to pay for the use of Cameron street extended.

Mr. Marbury announced that these matters would be incorporated at the proper time.

The ordinance was passed.

A resolution for the purchase of 30 copies monthly of the Municipal Journal for the use of members of the City Council, passed by the Common Council, was read.

Messrs. Ballenger and Hill favored a concurrence, but Messrs. Simpson, Burke and President Sweeney thought such action would be establishing a bad precedent.

The action of the Common Council was non-concurred in, the vote standing 4 to 4, and the resolution was referred to the finance committee.

Ordinances providing for the paving of King street west of Payne and directing the electric railway company to lay improved rails in that vicinity were received from the Common Council and laid over.

The Aldermen concurred in the action of the lower board on all the other papers sent in.

COMMON COUNCIL.

At the regular meeting of the City Council held last night the report of the committee on finance recommending that the petition of the school board that $100 be appropriated for the pay of several of the teachers of the public schools was unanimously adopted. A similar action was taken on the reports of the committee recommending the appropriation of $100 each for the Relief Hook and Ladder Company, the Columbia Steam Fire Engine Company and the Reliance Steam Fire Engine Company to defray the expenses of a trip to a meeting of the State Association to be held in Richmond.

The report of the committee on streets, recommending that the ordinance providing for the paving of Cameron street from Royal to Fairfax streets be read and recommitted, was adopted and similar action was taken on a resolution offered by Mr. Strauss providing for the paving of Fairfax street from King to Cameron streets.

A resolution appropriating $150 for laying a sewer from Royal street west on Prince street to Mr. George Harlow's residence was adopted.

The chairman then suggested that the regular routine business be suspended while the Council considered the bids offered for the proposed sale of the electric light plant and power franchise in order that the representatives of the companies representing bids might be enabled to catch an early train for Washington. Mr. Spinks objected, but a motion to this effect was carried, Mr. Spinks voting in the negative. The Aldermen were then invited into the Council chamber to hear the bids read.

Mr. Spinks moved that the advertisements for the franchise be read, but the motion was lost. The following bids were then read:

C. H. B. Chapin, of New York, offered $2,500 for the franchise, or $5,000 for the franchise and old plant, and agreed to furnish arc lights to the city at $85 each per year for 100 or less and $65 each per year for all over 100 for the first four years; $82 50 each per year for less than 100 and $62.50 per year for all over 100 for the fifth, sixth and seventh years, and $80 each per year for less than 100 and $60 each per year for more than 100 for the eighth, ninth and tenth years.

Mr. Chapin also agreed to furnish incandescent lights for municipal purposes at the annual rate of $11.25 for 16-candle-power lamps, $17.50 for 25-candle-power lamps, $21.25 for 32-candle-power lamps, and $31 50 for 50-candle power lamps He further agreed that his charges for current for domestic use would not exceed 15 cents per kilowatt hour, with a 10 per cent. discount for prompt payment of bills, and promised a low rate for current for power and offered the city 5 per cent. of his gross receipts in lieu of taxes.

E. E. Mandeville, of Philadelphia, offered $5,000 for the franchise, or $8,500 for the plant and franchise, and agreed to furnish not less than eighty-five arc lights for $75 per annum. His price for incandescent lights for municipal purposes is $16.50 per annum for 25 candle power lamps, and $19.50 for 32 candle power lamps. For current to private consumers, Mr. Mandeville proposes to charge 12 cents net for the first hour and 7 cents for each additional hour, and to give a discount of 50 per cent. on incandescent lights used by the city except in public buildings, churches and hospitals, which shall be free. He further offers the city 5 per cent. of his gross receipts in lieu of taxes.

Pressey & Weller, of Washington, D. C., bid $2,750 for the old plant and $2,750 for the franchise, or $5,500 for both, and agree to furnish not less than eighty arc lights for $65 per annum, and to make the price $60 if the city will use not less than 170 lights. They offer current for domestic use at 10 cents net per kilowatt hour, with a 10 per cent. penalty for delay in payment of light bills, and agree to a sliding scale for current for power, the price per kilowatt hour not to exceed 10 cents. They also offer 5 per cent. of the gross receipts in lieu of taxes, but their bid calls for an exclusive franchise. Pressey & Weller also submitted a bid of 10,000 per annum for the city gas plant, provided their bid for the electric franchise is accepted.

Howell and Sinclair offered $5,000 for the old plant and the franchise, and agreed to furnish not less than eighty-five arc lights at $70 each per annum during the first ten years of the contract, $65 during the second ten years, and $60 during the third ten years of the contract. For municipal lighting they agree to furnish 25 candlepower incandescent lights at $20 per anum and 32 candlepower lights at $25.

For current for domestic use they agree to charge not more than 10 cents net for thousand watts and 5 cents net after the first four hours, and to light public buildings at a uniform charge of 5 cents per kilowatt hour.

B. F. W. Bryant, of Boston, offered $20,000 for the exclusive franchise and the old plant, $15,000 to be paid in cash and the remainder in ten years, or $18,500 for the exclusive franchise, $15,000 to be paid in cash and the balance in ten years, the deferred payments in either instance to be covered by an unsecured and non-interest bearing promissory note. Their rate for current for domestic purposes is 10 cents per kilowatt hour, and for power 7 cents per kilowatt hour.

After the reading of the bids the joint convention dissolved.

On the reassembling of the Common Council all of the bids were referred to the joint committees on finance, light and general laws.

A resolution offered by Mr. Boothe appropriating $300 for the employment of an electrical expert to advise the committee was carried by the vote of 14 to 1.

The committee on streets reported that the communication from the mayor in regard to the Henry street railway track had been referred to the committee on streets and general laws. The committee recommended that the corporation attorney be instructed to make a motion that the injunction granted by Judge Nicol of the Circuit Court should be dissolved and to take such other steps as he deemed necessary in the defense of the city's rights in the matter. Mr. Strauss was not in favor of the report of the committee. He said that he did not wish to see the city go into litigation with the railroad company as it would surely get beaten if it did so. Mr. Williams then moved that Council non-concur in the report of the committee and the report be again referred to the committee.

Mr. Leadbeater said that the track had been practically abandoned by the railroad company and that they simply wanted to hold it in his opinion for the use of shifting extra freight cars. He said that for years the company had treated the residents of Alexandria in a shabby manner and had made them use depots that were a disgrace to a civilized community.

Mr. Boothe said he did not see how the city of Alexandria could afford not to fight the suit. He said that if it laid down now the railroad company would do as they chose in the future.

The Chair said that he had opposed the resolution from the first because he knew expensive litigation would follow. He then read the first section of the ordinance granting the right of way to the company for the use of Henry street which had been passed by council fourteen years ago, and which conferred upon the company the right to the use of Henry street forever. A motion was then made that the report of the committee be adopted and it was passed by the vote of 9 to 6.

The report of the committee recommending that the ordinance providing for the sale of the franchise for the use of Cameron street from Payne street west to the corporate limits on King street by the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Electric Railway Company for a single track with suitable curves and switches be advertised according to law was adopted and the ordinance unanimously passed.

A petition from the Municipal Journal and Engineer that an appropriation of $90 be made for the purchase of 30 copies of the journal for the use of the members of Council and city officials was after some debate favorably acted upon and the appropriation made.

A petition was received from Lieut. Smith of the police department asking that his salary for one month and seven days, which he had lost by reason of sickness, be paid him and it was referred to the committee on finance.

The clerk then read a report of the proceedings of the Alexandria Bar Association which met on Monday for the purpose of considering certain improvements to the clerk's office, and the matter was referred to the committees on public property and finance.

Mr. Strauss called for a reading of the ordinance providing for the grading and paving of King street from Payne street west to Peyton street with vitrified brick and appropriating $9,000 as the pro rata share of the city.

Mr. Bryan was of the opinion that the work should not be done at present, as he said a majority of the property owners on the squares affected had not signified their willingness to pay their part of the cost of the proposed improvement.

Messrs. Leadbeater, Boothe, Burke and Marshall were in favor of the work being done at once. Mr. Snowden said that all were in favor of street improvements, but he thought some one should first be employed to make a canvass of the property owners and see how many would pay their part. He wanted the same rule applied to the paving of all improved streets. Upon motion the ordinance was passed, Mr. Uhler, Mr. Bryan and Mr. Snowden voting in the negative.

An ordinance providing that the electric railway company be required to put in grooved rails within thirty days after the passage of the ordinance and to pave their portion of the street was also passed. Council then adjourned.

The Ice Supply.

The schooner Sullivan Sawin, with 1,000 tons of ice to the Mutual Ice Company arrived here yesterday evening. The schooner Henry S. Little, with 1,200 tons for the same company, sailed from Bucksport, Me., Monday, and the Estelle Finney, also carrying 1,200 tons, left the same place today for this port. A fourth schooner is now loading ice for the Mutual Company. There will therefore be no scarcity of ice in Alexandria, the Mutual Ice Company having taken steps to avoid any such inconvenience and to furnish the same at prevailing prices throughout the season.

The danger of a continuance of the ice famine in Washington is also past. The four-masted schooner Van Brudt, with a cargo of 1,600 tons of ice, and the three-masted schooner Cox & Green, with a cargo of 800 tons, are being unloaded at the wharf of the American Ice Company, making three ice-laden vessels which have unloaded at Washington within the last three days. These, it is said, are being followed by the big seagoing barge Idaho, with 2,500 tons on board, and by other vessels with cargoes sufficient to supply all needs until late in August. Officials of the American Ice Company state that there will be no further shortage this summer.

Personal.

Mrs. Geo. D. Hopkins has gone to McDaniel, Talbot county, Md., to spend a few weeks.

Mr. M. Ruben has gone to New York, where he will attend the furniture exhibit.

Mr. Albert Henderson, now of New York, was in the city today on a short visit to his old home

Misses Edna and Minnie Barnett left Sunday for Philadelphia and Phoenixville, Pa., where they will spend a few weeks with relatives and friends.

Miss May Wright, of Washington, who has been in Europe for the last eighteen months, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. J. Stanley Neale, 808 Prince street. Mr. Roy Robins, of King William county, and Mr. Joseph Campbell, of Washington, spent Sunday with Mrs. Neale.

The Last of the Sam'l J. Pentz.

Lying on the bottom of the river, off Wagner's Point in the Patapsco river, is the hull of the old steamer Samuel J. Pentz, which sunk on Monday evening as she was being towed down the river by the tug William H. Yerkes, jr., on her way to Washington. As has been stated, the steamboat was purchased sometime ago by Mr. James Heath, of Washington, who intended to take the vessel to Washington and have her rebuilt and made into a houseboat. After the sinking of the boat Mr. Heath, who was on the tug, returned to Baltimore and boarded a train for Washington. The hull of the steamboat is lying on the sandbar off Wagner's Point, where she was beached by the tug. An investigation disclosed the facts that the steamer's bottom and timbers were decayed through and through and that she can never be used again. It is probable that the wood and iron about her hull will be sold for a very small sum.

Burning of the Steamer Kent.

The old steamer Kent, which has for several months been lying on the Maryland flats opposite this city was burned to the water's edge late yesterday evening. The steamer was purchased about a year ago by Dreifus & Co., of this city, who after taking out the machinery and everything else of value towed the hull to the opposite flats. Yesterday coal oil was poured upon the hull and set on fire. The steamer burned several hours, lighting up the eastern portion of the river for a long distance. Many people of this city were attracted to the wharves and hills by the light. The Kent was the oldest steamer in this section having been built in Baltimore in 1854. For many years she ran from Baltimore to different places down Chesapeake bay. Of late the steamer plied between Washington, Alexandria and river landings, until she had outlived her day of usefulness.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Harrie Lyles, arrested by Officer Henderson for using insulting language toward him while on duty, was dismissed with a reprimand.

Sarah Catlett, colored, arrested by Officers Beach and Lyles charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Four colored girls, arrested by Officer Garvey charged with disorderly conduct, were fined 50 cents each.

Wm. Anderson, colored, arrested by Officer Roberts charged with stealing sacks from Messrs. W. H. May & Sons, was held for trial.

Naked Among the Tombs.

Two men in a state of nature were discovered in a car in the Southern Railway depot last night. When surprised they left the car and ran rapidly toward the cemeteries, and are now supposed to be secreting themselves among the tombs. Officers Bettis and Nicholson were apprised of the incident and they endeavored to intercept the fugitives for the purpose of clothing them, although they were unable to place them in their right minds. They failed, however. It is supposed that the men escaped from some asylum and entered the box car. Both were naked.

Police Commissioners.

A called meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners will be held at the Mayor's office tonight. The object of the meeting is to continue the investigation of the working of the police force began several months ago.

Fell From a Steamer.

Early yesterday morning while the steamer Washington was near Fort Washington on her way up from Norfolk a quartermaster who was aiding in spreading an awning fell overboard by the breaking of a rope to which he was holding. The steamer stopped immediately and preparations were made for lowering a boat, but before this could be done the man was rescued by the tugboat Eugenia, Capt. Force, belonging to W. A. Smoot & Co., of this city. He was placed aboard the Washington after which the steamer proceeded to this port.

To Appear Before Tennessee Court.

Samuel T. Morgan, president of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company; Fortesque Whittle, one of the managing directors, and J. Rice Smith, a sales agent of the corporation, under indictment for alleged violation of the Sherman law forbidding companies and combines from doing anything in restraint of trade and commerce, were yesterday before Judge Waddill in the United States District Court, in Richmond. The proceedings are in the nature of extradition cases, the object of the assistant attorney general, Edward T. Sanford, of Knoxville, who is prosecuting, being to obtain an order for their removal to the middle district of Tennessee for trial. The Virginia-Carolina Company officers are included in a list of 40 or 50 officers of different corporations indicted for the same alleged offense.

Other indicted men involved in yesterday's proceedings are: F. S. Royster, of the Independent Fertilizer Company, of Norfolk, and J. G. Tinsley, vice president of the Tennessee Chemical Company.

A preliminary application was made by Mr. Sandford for warrants for the arrest of the indicted officers, all of whom were present. Judge Waddill intimated that as the men were present and in custody there was no necessity for the formality of taking them into custody. A warrant of arrest was finally issued against J. G. Tinsley, whose case was the first taken up. The defense began their fight with a sweeping denial of the charges.

The defense having challenged the certified copies of the indictments, Judge Waddill announced after ordering a recess that he would give a decision yesterday afternoon on the question whether these certified copies should be accepted as evidence sufficient upon which to base a commitment.

Late in the afternoon Judge Waddill announced that he would require bail for the appearance of the men before the Tennessee court; and the amount of the bail will be fixed today.

Attempt to Assassinate Admiral.

Odessa, Russia, July 11.—An attempt was made at Sevastopol today to assassinate Admiral Chuenine, commander of the Russian Black Sea fleet. The admiral was wounded and taken to a hospital for treatment. He has been picked out as a victim of the terrorists for some time. On February 9, last, a woman tried to kill him

St. Petersburg, July 11.—Mutinies on the part of dissatisfied troops in various parts of the empire are becoming very common, and the outbreaks which have occurred where soldiers have offered violence to their officers or resisted attempts to make them obey officers are significant as showing the general unrest which prevails in the army. Ten serious mutinies have been reported from as many different districts.

In Warsaw the soldiers absolutely refused to do police work in the streets. At Odessa, the soldiers passed a resolution demanding that the Douma shall call a constituent convention At Samara, Osova, Kieff, Riga, and Tampoff, the troops have refused to act against the revolutionists. The mutiny at Tamboff has been especially serious since the cavalry forces barricaded themselves in their barracks, and resisted the attempts of loyal soldiers to disarm them, when an attempt was made to arrest the mutineers for disobeying orders.

At Sevastopol the soldiers refused to obey their officers and at Ekatorinaslav and Ust, Medyietskoy, the troops are keeping within their barracks and have refused to obey orders to mobilize.

Added to these disorders are many others which have been reported. The Minister of War receives reports of these disturbances daily.

No new details have been reported today of any of the mutinies and the government is basing some hope from that fact. None of the reports show that the mutineers at any point have secured the upper hand definitely.

Reports from these emissaries to the revolutionary leaders state that the mutineers are not manifesting good staying qualities. They revolt one day only to tamely submit to their officers the next day and this prevents anything like a general mutiny. The government declares it is fully able to cope with the present situation and that the mutinies will be put down without difficulty.

Duels in France.

Paris, July 11.—A duel was fought on Monday between Col. Picquart and General Gonse, growing out of the Dreyfus case, and Count Boni de Castellane is reported to have two duels on his hands as the result of the annullment of his election to the Chamber of Deputies on the ground of fraud.

At the Masons Laffitte race course recently M. Charles de Bruchard slapped the face of Gaston de Beauvoir. This offered a pretext for a duel and evidently the insulter wanted a fight as he immediately offered his card. M. De Beauvoir accepted the card, but instead of appointing seconds, immediately, slapped the face of his adversary in return, thus saving his honor.

A challenge was sent to Fernand Brun, a member of the Chamber of Deputies, by Jules Albessard. The latter named his seconds but when they tried to make arrangements for a meeting were told that M. Brun and his friends would settle the matter in their own way by a new method for such affairs. Albessard is still waiting to discover what this method is to be.

At Brest, Capt. Amene, an artillery officer, assaulted M. Melmoux, the assistant station master, who hit back, giving the Captain all the attention he desired. Friends of the Captain waited on Melmoux later, demanding that he fight a duel. Melmoux replied that the duel would take place in police court. Captain Amene and his brother then went to the station and assaulted Melmoux. The Captain was promptly arrested.

Arrested at Oyster Bay.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 11.—A man who at first claimed to be a member of the secret service and then said that he was a seaman, on the battleship Kentucky, was arrested at Coleman's livery stable this morning, while negotiating for a rig to go out to Sagamore Hill. When arrested by one of the real, sure enough secret service men he gave his name as Edward More (pronounced Morey) and said he came in from New York last evening to see the President about an important matter. Instead of being angered or grieved over his arrest, More was inclined to be facetious. The secret service guard turned More over to Constable McQuade who now has him in charge. He will be arraigned before Squire Franklin this afternoon.

Accident on a Steamer.

New York, July 11.—The British steamer Sir Richard Greenville arrived this morning from Huelva, Spain, minus her smokestack, which she lost at sea, Captain Jones said that on Sunday July 8, when the vessel was in latitude 37:30; longtitude 48:30, a tremendous wall of water, or tidal wave, suddenly struck the steamer amidships on the starboard side, carrying away the smokestack, which in its descent smashed the rail and damaged a life boat. Fortunately no one was injured. An improvised smokestack of heavy scantling was made which served to barely make draught for the furnaces and the steamer proceeded under easy steam. The Grenville is loaded with iron pyrites.

Bold Robbery.

St. Petersburg, July 11.—The bold robbery of the admiralty paymaster's office was accomplished today by three young men who pillaged the place after shooting the treasurer and two watchmen and made their escape. The young men, dressed as students, called at the paymaster's office. When they had gained access to the place they shot the treasurer and seized a bag containing 24,000 roubles. Two watchmen who tried to interfere were also shot. The disguised students then ran from the building, jumped into a cab and drove away unmolested.

Blew Open Safe.

Chicago, July 11.—Three robbers blew open the safe in the bricklayers' hall in the business district of the city this morning secured over $1,000 and escaped after a pistol battle with the police. The heavy charge of the explosive wrecked the second floor of the building, in which the safe was located. John Thornton, the janitor, fired at the men, who returned the shots. The police heard the explosion and arrived as the burglars reached the street.

Woman Brutally Murdered.

Minneapolis, Minn., July 11.—Miss Nellie Elliston, of Ellsworth, Wis., was found dying in the National Hotel, yesterday afternoon. The woman's head was crushed with a hammer blow, the body tied to a couch, which was saturated with alcohol, and then set afire. The discovery of the smoke and flames revealed the murder. The woman died while the flames were being extinguished. The upper part of the body was terribly burned. A man who registered at the hotel as W. H. Wilson, of Milwaukee, and occupied a room directly over that of the woman, is believed to be the murderer. He was seen running from the woman's room a few minutes before the fire was discovered. He instantly left the hotel carrying two grips. The murdered woman arrived at the hotel Monday morning and registered as "Mrs. Johnson, Detroit." She was assigned to a room on the second floor. A few hours later "Wilson" arrived and was given a room on the third floor directly above the woman's. So far as is known, the couple did not meet until the crime was committed.

North Carolina Republicans.

Greensboro, N. C., July 11.—The republican State convention here yesterday afternoon and early all of last night, was the most bitter and at times the most turbulent ever held in the State. The great fight was over the election of a State party chairman. The election of Judge Spencer B. Adams over E. Spencer Blackburn, the "insurgent," Congressman from the Eighth district, and Charles J. Harris, a Blackburn partisan by a majority of eighty-five over both, is a decisive victory for the element that at present has control of the party machinery represented by the office holders element and calling themselves "organization" or administration men. Former Supreme Court Judge Robert N. Douglass, who was late last night nominated for Corporation Commissioner, the only elective office to be filled this year, is the son of the famous Stephen A. Douglass.

Gold Fields Discovered.

Lisbon, July 11.—The Governor of Lourenze Marquese, one of the chief ports of Portuguese East Africa, in Mozambique, reports that prospectors have discovered gold fields near the town of Tete, on the Zambesi river, which are very rich. Hundreds of people are entering the fields, and taking up claims. The governor also says that from present indications the fields are among the richest in the world and that Tete may become a second Johannesburg.

Secretary Root in Porto Rico.

San Juan, Porto Rico, July 11.—The United States cruiser Charleston, with Secretary of State Root and his party on board, sailed from here at midnight for Para, Brazil. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Root was taken for an automobile ride about Porto Rico. A reception was given for the secretary and his party at the executive mansion, Monday night, by Governor and Mrs Winthrop.

Heavy Fines.

Chicago, July 11.—The Chicago & Alton Railroad Company and two of its former officials, John N. Faithorn and Fred Wann, were fined an aggregate sum of $60,000 today by federal Judge Landis. Faithorn was vice president and Wann General Freight Agent of the Company in May, 1905, when, it is alleged to have paid $13,400 to the meat packing firm of Schwarzschild and Sulzberger, of Kansas City. The packers owned a side track to their plant and charged $1 a car to railroad companies which used the track. The railroad paid $3,400 as a sum "equivalent to the fares paid by the packers salesman," both of these payments were according to the verdict of the jury which found the defendants guilty of indictments for violation of the interstate commerce laws, were "disguised rebates." The fines were for six separate offenders, two against each defendant. The Chicago & Alton Company was fined $40,000, and the officials of the company $10,000 each. Notice of appeal was given.

A Lesson In Japanese Courtesy.

I remember many years ago a dinner at the palace—a great official dinner—where among the guests were many of the old leaders of rebellions, old upholders of the shogunate. The last shogun himself, Prince Tokugawa, proud, silent, grim, sat opposite to me, and I wondered if any human emotion could show itself on that impassive face. At that moment the emperor raised his glass and bowed in kindly smiling fashion to his ancient opponent. The face changed, was suffused for one illuminating moment with a glow of responsive fire. It seemed as if the emperor was once more thanking the shogun for his splendid patriotic act when after years of struggle he voluntarily laid his power and his prerogatives at the emperor's feet "for the good of the country," and as if Prince Tokugawa, looking back—and looking forward—for Japan, said to himself once more, "It was well done." — Mary C. Fraser in World's Work.

Figures That Stagger.

It used to be that astronomy, with its stupendous magnitudes, incredible velocities and inconceivable distances, seemed to make the greatest demand on man's belief, says the London Telegraph. Today it is physics. We read, for instance, that Herta's oscillations give rise to 500,000,000 oscillations per second. Where is the man who can conceive of anything happening in the five-hundred-millionth part of a second? But this is quite a long period compared to some of those now accepted as inevitable optics. According to Maxwell's great theory, a light wave is a series of alternating electric currents flowing in air or interplanetary space and changing their direction 1,000,000,000,000,000 times per second. And this is supposed to be true of every form of light coming from the sun, the electric lamp or a lucifer match. Who can think of anything happening in the thousand-million-millionth part of a second?

Landseer's Valet.

Sir Edwin Landseer, the famous animal painter, had an old servant—his butler, valet and faithful slave—named William, who was particularly assiduous in guarding the outer portal. No one could by any possibility gain direct access to Sir Edwin. The answer would invariably be, "Sir Hedwin is not at 'ome." The prince consort himself once received this answer when he called, amplified on that occasion by the assurance that "he had gone to a wedding," an entire fiction on William's part, as the prince found out, for on walking boldly in and round the garden he noticed Sir Edwin looking out of his studio window. This was the faithful attendant who one day, when a lion had died at the "zoo" and his corpse came up in a four wheeled cab to be painted from, startled his master with the question, "Please, Sir Hedwin, did you horder a lion?"

Thatched Roofs In England.

"The thatched roof, which makes the English cottage picturesque, is doomed," said an architect. "For some years it has been going gradually. Soon it will be altogether a thing of the past. Fire insurance is the cause of the thatched roof's disappearance. No company will insure a cottage or its contents if the roof is thatched. They who want insurance must substitute for the roof of thatch a tiled one. As long as the English cottager remains very poor so that his house and furniture are not worth insuring he keeps a thatched roof over his head. As soon as he begins to prosper and lays in household goods of value he takes out a fire policy and away then goes his thatched roof." — Louisville Courier-Journal.

His Style of Hitting.

"And, now, Mrs. Sullivan," said the counsel, "will you be kind enough to tell the jury whether your husband was in the habit of striking you with impunity?"

"With what, sor?" queried Mrs. Sullivan.

"With impunity," repeated the counsel.

"Well, he was, sor, now and thin, but he struck me oftener wid his fisht, sor."

His Remark.

"I won't do any more work for that man Hopkins."

"Why?"

"Well, he passed some remark I did not like."

"Did he? What was it?"

"He said, 'Brown, you won't be wanted after this week.'"

Constant Advice.

"A woman should always depend on her husband for advice," said the devoted wife.

"Yes," answered the visitor, "but it does grow monotonous not to get any advice except to economize."—Washington Star.

Lost Youth.

A man looks back with regret, but without bitterness, to his lost youth; a woman, however vehemently she may protest to the contrary, seldom if ever attains to this same calm serenity.—Gentleman's Magazine.

Fictitious.

Angel Child—Aunt Daisy, what is meant by "a fictitious character?" Aunt Daisy—That means one that is made up, dear. Angel Child—Oh, yes! Then you're a fictitious character, aren't you, auntie?

Learn to be pleased with everything—with wealth, so far as it makes us beneficial to others; with poverty, for not having much to care for, and with obscurity, for being unenvied. — Plutarch.

Labor and Politics.

"Every improvement that has come to the life of the workingman he has had to fight for. The good things have not been brought to him on a silver plater. There are more good things waiting for you if you will contend with all your organized might against governmental tyranny and judicial usurpation."

These words spoken yesterday by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, at the convention of the Amalgamated Window Glass Workers of America at Cleveland, Ohio, may be taken as referring to the proposed political activity of organized labor in the United States.

Asked, before the convention, for an expression regarding the entrance of labor unions into politics, Gompers said: "At the proper time I will make a statement for the press. I do not want the statement to be made public in haphazard fashion."
